Introduction

In life you are often faced with challenges. When striving for a better future, you may sometimes encounter stress and anxiety. During these times, a healthy body is not enough, you also need a healthy mind! FWD provides you with a free Mind Strength Support Programme (the “Programme”) within the first policy year of the Eligible Policy so you can get proactive about strengthening your most powerful asset. It helps whether you have no emotional issues, mild challenges or severe problems.

Imagine all the things your mind can improve and overcome. If things go the other way round, we have – and we've designed the Programme for it.

Improve:

Strengthen your mind
before challenges occur

Start using this Programme by making a routine out of it

The Programme lets you take a more proactive approach even before any challenges, as building your mind strength will also improve your life, relationships and career. Make a routine out of the benefits for a better self.

Overcome:

Strengthen your mind
when challenges occur

Use the Programme on your terms and your comfort level

Our aim is to get you comfortable in getting the help you need and seeing it through to completion. So we designed the Programme to include instant and confidential follow-up options that cover your entire healing journey.

Improve:

Strengthen your mind before challenges occur

Train yourself

Your mind can be trained like your body. Mind training will help you overcome personal struggles, but also give us an edge in life.

Mind Strength Learning Platform

Within the first policy year of the Eligible Policy, you and your family members can benefit from our collaboration with Mind Strength specialists. We have developed a series of video and tips to enable you and your family to strengthen your/ their minds.

Assess yourself

Get more proactive in knowing how your mind is doing, and access a range of support if you need it.

Mind Strength Assessment Service

Powered by Koa Health

Answer some short questions and get your Mind Strength score. You can regularly conduct self-assessment on your mental health, to continuously understand your mental health status within the first policy year of the Eligible Policy.

Overcome:

Strengthen your mind when challenges occur

When you encounter emotional health problems or feel stressed, you can take the Mind Strength Assessment Service to understand your emotional status and related factors, and get tailor-made options within the first policy year based on your Mind Strength score.

Chat with a mental health coach via ThoughtFullChat

Powered by ThoughtFull

Even the greatest athletes need a coach by their side to keep them improving. Be like them and enlist the help of a coach so you don't have to manage life's challenges alone. Your coach will help you better manage emotions and negative patterns of thinking. You can text your mental health coach (counsellors or clinical psychologists) on ThoughtFullChat anytime, anywhere within the first policy year of the Eligible Policy.

Book an appointment with a ThoughtFull mental health professional

Powered by ThoughtFull

Work with a trained counsellor or clinical psychologist who can help you understand your moods, feelings, thoughts, and behaviors. They will help you learn how to respond during challenging times and equip you with relevant coping skills. You are entitled to have 3 complimentary one-hour video sessions within the first policy year of the Eligible Policy.
